Forever Thoughts

by Hughes of Leeds

We understand the importance of the flowers you send, not just as a mark of respect to the person who has passed, but as a comfort to those left behind. We will cater sympathetically to your needs and ensure your flowers are delivered promptly and respectfully.

We can also provide a vast range of personal floral tributes, each one is created with the utmost care and skill by a dedicated team of florists who place emphasis on quality and freshness. If required your own design can be made up. Individual quotations are available on request.

All our sprays are available in colours other than those illustrated in this brochure.
